

An aerial photograph of a school campus. A yellow outline highlights a specific area in the center-right of the image, which includes a large, rectangular building with a flat roof and a paved area. The surrounding area includes other school buildings, green lawns, and parking lots. The image is oriented vertically on the page.