

A wide-angle photograph of the Hôpital du Gier building. The main structure is a multi-story, light-colored building with numerous windows. A prominent sign on the left side of the building reads 'URGENCES' in red capital letters. To the right, a large sign features the hospital's logo and the name 'Hôpital du Gier' in a stylized font. The building is surrounded by greenery, including trees and shrubs. In the foreground, a paved area with white parking lines is visible, and a white car is partially seen on the left. The sky is blue with scattered white clouds.
